ABOUT SHARAN

Sharan Valley is one of the most beautiful unspoiled jewels of the Kaghan Valley, situated at an altitude of 7872 ft. It is one of the most beautiful and peaceful places where you can spend time with nature. The KPK government has constructed wooden huts and camp pods to make the area more accessible for tourists; however, it has not been overly commercialized, preserving its pristine charm. Visiting Sharan Valley will be a memorable experience. It is thirty kilometers from Balakot and sixteen kilometres from Paras. To reach the forest, you need to take a 4x4 jeep for the 16-kilometer rugged and hilly journey from Paras. The road is surrounded by thick pine trees and lush green grass.

PLACES TO VISIT

Balakot:

Balakot, situated on the Kunhar River in Shogran Valley, is a bustling tourist hub offering a variety of accommodations, from luxury to budget options. Surrounded by verdant meadows and hills, it's an ideal escape from daily life. You can take short stop at Balakot for breakfast/lunch/dinner or you can also stay at Balakot. The town has a range of hotels and guesthouses catering to tourists.

Kiwai waterfall:

Kiwai, a charming village, serves as a stopover for travelers heading to Naran or Shogran. The picturesque Abshaar Cafe, situated by a beautiful waterfall, offers tourists a chance to dine, unwind, and admire the stunning Kiwai scenery. The crystal-clear water and lush green surroundings make it a popular attraction. Kiwai Waterfall is easily accessible by road. It is located along the main route to the Kaghan Valley, making it a frequent stop for tourists and travelers.

Kaghan Valley:

Kaghan Valley is a beautiful and famous vacation place for tourists and travelers. Kaghan Valley is almost at 1 hour distance from Shogran Valley. Kaghan Valley is the best place to enjoy cool weather in the summer season. Kaghan Valley is a perfect destination for nature lovers and adventure seekers, offering breathtaking scenery, outdoor activities, and a peaceful retreat from city life.

Paras

Paras is the starting point of a jeep road that goes to Sharan Forest. It has a small market, some grocery shops, and a few restaurants on Naran road. You can do breakfast/dinner or stay at Paras. The village is surrounded by lush green hills, dense forests, and the flowing Kunhar River, providing a picturesque setting. The natural landscape makes Paras an ideal spot for relaxation and enjoying nature. Paras has a pleasant climate in the summer, with cool temperatures and refreshing breezes.

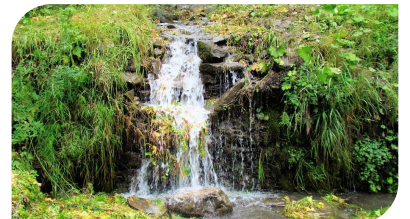

Manshi Top

A two-hour trek from Sharan leads to Manshi Top, from whence the tourists can glimpse other hills shrouded in clouds as well. Hiking to Manshi Top is highly recommended for adventure seekers. Trekkers are rewarded with captivating vistas of luscious meadows and snow-capped mountains, making for a very enchanting experience. Manshi Top is located near the village of Paras in the Kaghan Valley. It is accessible by a trekking route from Paras, making it an adventurous destination for hikers and nature lovers.

Sharan Waterfall

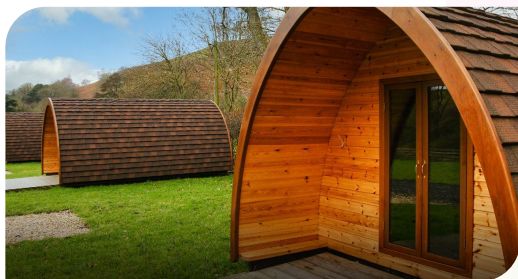

Nestled in the rich foliage of a picturesque Sharan woodland lies the Sharan Waterfall, a captivating natural treasure. This hidden gem offers a tranquil escape for nature enthusiasts. Trek to Sharan waterfall from main Sharan top. Visitors can enjoy hiking, picnicking, and nature walks in the surrounding areas. The forest offers various trails, and the waterfall itself is a popular spot for tourists looking to experience the tranquility of nature.

Accommodation options

Camping Pods and Glamps

The KP government has created camp pods and wooden cabins to assist visitors in the jungle. These cozy lodgings offer a distinctive experience, with each pod featuring mattresses, solar electricity, and space for two. This eco-friendly approach minimizes environmental impact while providing modern conveniences. Guests have access to a separate dining space and kitchen for meal preparation. Overall, these accommodations offer a calm and comfortable setting amidst the natural splendor of the forest.
